DECEMBER 1, 2018

Military Missions In Action is committed to safeguarding the personal information entrusted to us by our supporters and those we serve. We manage your personal information in accordance Consumer and Customer Information Privacy Act and other with applicable laws. This policy outlines the principles and practices we follow in protecting your personal information.

This policy applies to Military Missions In Action and to any person providing services on our behalf. A copy of this policy is provided to any donors and those we serve on request.

WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Personal information means information about an identifiable individual. This includes an individual's name, home address and phone number, age, sex, marital or family status, an identifying number, financial information, educational history, etc.

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

We collect only the personal information that we need for the purposes of providing services to our clients and donors, including personal information needed to:

- Enroll a client in a program
- Depositing donations
- Mailing receipts for donations
- Demographics for grants

We normally collect client/donors personal information directly from our clients/donors. We may collect your information from other persons (ex: case worker) with your consent or as authorized by law.

We inform our clients/donors, before or at the time of collecting personal information, of the purposes for which we are collecting the information. The only time we do not provide this notification is when a client/donor volunteers information for an obvious purpose.

CONSENT

We ask for consent to collect, use or disclose client personal information, except in specific circumstances where collection, use or disclosure without consent is authorized or required by law. We may assume your consent in cases where you volunteer information for obvious purposes.

We assume your consent to continue to use and, where applicable, disclose personal information that we have already collected, for the purpose for which the information was collected.

We ask for your express consent for some purposes and may not be able to provide certain services if you are unwilling to provide consent to the collections, use or disclosure of certain personal information. Where express consent is needed, we will normally ask clients to provide their consent orally (in person, by telephone), or in writing (by signing a consent form).

In cases that do not involve sensitive personal information, we may rely on “opt-out” consent. For example, we may disclose your contact information to other organizations that we believe may be of interest to you, unless you request that we do not disclose your information.

A client/donor may withdraw consent to the use and disclose of personal information at any time, unless the personal information is necessary for us to fulfill our legal obligations. We will respect your decision, but we may not be able to provide you with certain services if we do not have the necessary personal information.

We may collect, use or disclose client/donor personal information without consent only as authorized by law. For example, we may not request consent when the collection, use or disclosure is to determine suitability for an honor for award, or in an emergency that threatens life, health or safety.

HOW DO WE USE AND DISCLOSE PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We use and disclose client personal information only for the purpose for which the information was collected, except as authorized by law. For example, we may use client information to hire contractors for building projects or donor information to mail tax receipts.

If we wish to use or disclose your personal information for any new business purpose, we will ask for your consent.
